Charles W. Thompson, Jr. will lead a discussion on representing a governmental organization under Rule 1.13 of the Lawyers' Rules of Professional Conduct. This one hour interactive presentation discusses cases, ethics opinions, and other concepts that involve the representation of a governmental entity and includes a discussion of how attorney client privilege is affected in the course of that representation. Mr. Thompson is currently the Executive Director and General Counsel of the International Municipal Lawyers Association, and, in addition to many other roles in public service, has served as Chairman and a member of the MSBA's Committee on Ethics.

Cost $20 in advance or $30 at the door.

A Continental Breakfast will be served to allow for networking and discussion prior to the program, which will start at 9 am.

Contact Theresa Michael at tmichael@msba.org or (410)-685-7878, (800)-492-1964 ext. 3017 to register.

Checks should be made payable to MSBA and sent to:
